THE EVENT

Event Scale & Community Reach

The 2027 Nassau International Wushu Championships will take place on April 24–25, 2027, at Nassau Community College in Garden City, New York.

The two-day event is expected to feature approximately 400 athletes, including 200 from New York, along with coaches, families, and supporters from across the United States.

The competition venue has a seating capacity of 2,500 spectators, providing an excellent setting for a major martial arts championship and community celebration.

With free spectator admission, the championships welcome families, friends, and community members of all ages.

The event offers sponsors an opportunity to connect with a diverse, multigenerational audience while supporting youth development, healthy aging, cultural heritage, and community well-being.

CHAIRMAN · TWO-TIME WORLD TAIJIQUAN CHAMPION

Sitan Chen

- Asian Games gold, 1990
- World champion, 1993 and 1997
- National Games gold, 1997
- 32 national and international golds

Known in China as the “Prince of Taiji”, Sitan Chen joined the Fujian wushu team as a boy and won China's first men's taijiquan gold at the 1990 Asian Games, then world titles in 1993 and 1997. He retired from competition in 1997 with 32 gold medals and became a coach.

He later moved to New York and founded Sitan Tai Chi and Martial Arts, where he teaches students from five-year-olds to people in their seventies. As chairman of TCQGAA, he leads the Nassau championships.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Why sponsor

01 Meet families in person

Athletes, parents and coaches spend the whole day at the venue, and they shop local.

02 Be seen all day

Banners by the rings, thank-yous on the PA, and your logo on the event page families check all weekend.

03 Back young athletes

Sponsorships fund the two Wushu Scholarships ($800 and $500), the medals, judges and venue, and TCQGAA's year-round Tai Chi, Wushu and Health Qigong programs and cultural exchange.

04 Talk to them directly

A table at the venue puts you face to face with 1,000+ people.

Terms. Sponsor recognition acknowledges your support and isn't an endorsement by Tai Chi Qigong Association of America. Payment is due when you commit; benefits begin once paid. You confirm you may use the logo you send, and allow us to show it for this event. Printed benefits need artwork by the deadline. We may decline a sponsorship; for a youth event we don't accept alcohol, tobacco or vaping, cannabis or gambling sponsors. We never share athletes' or families' details with sponsors.

For tax purposes. Tai Chi Qigong Association of America is a nonprofit organization, tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Recognition is an acknowledgment of a qualified sponsorship payment; ask your tax adviser how much is deductible, which is generally the amount above the value of any benefits you receive.
